

Dollco Printing Wins Gold and Two Silver at “Le Gala Gutenberg 2009”

Ottawa, ON Canada (May 25, 2009) – Dollco Printing was awarded three Gutenberg Awards for print excellence—one Gold and two Silver at the 27th Gutenberg Gala held in Montreal Quebec at the Cabaret du Casino de Montréal, on April 21st.

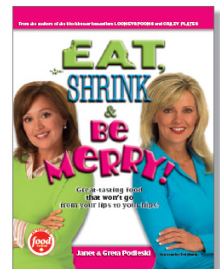

The jury of Les Artisans des Arts Graphiques de Montréal awarded Gold to Dollco for their printing of its Spring 2009 Skidoo product catalogue for Bombardier Recreational Products and a Silver award went to Eat Shrink & Be Merry cookbook by Granet Publishing, an additional Silver award was presented for Dollco’s work on COLOR: Messages & Meanings by Hand Books Press.

“Having been honored with three Gutenberg Awards is an important stepping stone for Dollco,” said Kevin Nicholds, President of Dollco Printing. “It provides the recognition and validation of the quality we are producing for our Quebec customers.”

The awards were presented at the prestigious Le Gala Gutenberg ceremony held in the Cabaret du Casino de Montréal where close to 500 participants were in attendance. This event is the highlight of the year for printers and industry experts in the Graphic Arts community of Quebec and it presents an opportunity to highlight the exceptional work being produced within the francophone community.

This year 223 prizes were awarded to 35 different companies for work judged in the 7 categories. The jury of judges was comprised of industry professionals from a variety of organizations and expertise. The organizing committee of Les Artisans des Arts Graphiques de Montréal put on a terrific event—with evening entertainment that included a spectacular music show by the live band Alter Ego.

Dollco Printing was one of the event sponsors, and pleased to have had the opportunity to showcase some recent work. As a publications printer delivering quality results, we now offer a wide variety of integrated services for the commercial printing and graphic communications industries.

About Dollco Printing

Dollco Printing is one of Canada’s largest privately-owned printing companies offering the most comprehensive suite of printing services under one roof in Canada.

Headquartered in Ottawa, Canada, Dollco Printing operates out of a 120,000 square foot, custom-built production facility. The company employs 270 people with offices in Ontario, Quebec, Atlantic Canada and the northeastern United States. Dollco is committed to providing responsive, resourceful service to each and every customer. www.dollco.com